ORDER ON SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION

Xerox Capital Services, LLC filed a Supplemental Motion for Relief from Stay based upon a default by Debtor under a Consent Order entered on May 28, 2008, which denied Movant's earlier motion for relief from stay, regarding a an Igen Printer, conditioned upon Debtor maintaining timely post-petition adequate protection payments as provided therein. The consent order provided that if Debtor defaulted, Creditor could present a Proposed Order lifting the automatic stay without further notice or hearing. A hearing on the Supplemental Motion was held on October 29, 2008, at 10:00 a.m. After hearing the arguments and representations of the parties, the Court finds that the relief requested is appropriate. Accordingly, it is

ORDERED, that Movant's supplemental motion to lift stay is GRANTED, and the automatic stay imposed by 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) is lifted as to Movant (including its successors and assigns) and the ten day stay provided for in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(1) is hereby waived in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(3), such that Creditor may immediately exercise its state law remedies to obtain possession of the Collateral, and to liquidate said Collateral upon entry of this Order. It is further ORDERED that following foreclosure and upon compliance with state law, the Creditor may file an unsecured deficiency claim upon sale of the Collateral, if applicable, with copies served upon the United States Trustee, Debtor, and Debtor's counsel.
